New Horizon Wines/ Wines of Virginia – Stand S24

Reston, VA - March 27 2009

Virginia wineries extend their horizons at the London International Wine Fair, May 2009

A group of Virginia wineries are working together to show some of the best wines from this up and coming wine producing region, the fifth largest in the U.S. The line-up will include Viognier, Cabernet Franc, Petit Verdot, Nebbiolo and other wines of distinction.

Organized by New Horizon Wines in association with Virginia Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services, U.S. Commercial Service, and Southern U.S. Trade Association (SUSTA), this is the first time that Virginia wineries have been so well represented at the London International Wine Fair.

“The passion and dedication of the winemakers in Virginia has produced wines that rival the best in the world. The exceptional well-balanced, food-friendly wines, bring something new and exciting to the market”, said Christopher Parker, Founder and Managing Director, New Horizon Wines.

The following winemakers will be in attendance to personally introduce their wines and to represent the Virginia wine regions: Luca Paschina, Barboursville Vineyards; Chris Blosser, Breaux Vineyards; Jim Corcoran, Corcoran Vineyards; Chris Pearmund, Pearmund Cellars; John Delmare, Rappahannock Cellars; Justin Bogaty, Veramar Vineyards; Tony Champ, White Hall Vineyards; Matthew Meyer, Williamsburg Winery,

We invite you to meet the winemakers and discover these exciting wines at the New Horizon Wines/Wines of Virginia stand S24:

- Barboursville Vineyards
- DelFosse Vineyards
- Keswick Vineyards
- Rappahannock Cellars

- Veramar Vineyards
